

POSITION DESCRIPTION: Jewish Life and Learning Professional

Camp Solomon Schechter is seeking an energetic, resourceful, and knowledgeable individual to lead our Judaic Director programming, and help bring Jewish values, traditions, and activities to life. This is the perfect position for a creative person who is excited by the prospect of managing and crafting Jewish learning for a wide age range of Jewish children. This position calls for an adventurous attitude and the ability to lead camp staff and campers through Jewish traditions and activities. Schechter is located just outside Olympia, WA.

Founded in 1954, Schechter is an independent camp that offers an innovative Jewish experience for youth of all denominations. Our spectacular 180-acre wooded facility features a private lake, hiking trails, challenge course, climbing wall, sports fields, arts & crafts, and more. Camp enables young people to grow by giving them the tools to thrive in a supportive and engaging environment. Learn more at www.campschechter.org.

Responsibilities

- Be an approachable and knowledgeable Jewish resource for staff and campers;
- Work with the Directors to implement the mission, vision, and values of CSS;
- Assists camp mashgiach in maintaining kashrut throughout camp;
- Create and facilitate transformative Jewish programming;
- Lead and or facilitate Jewish-related services, brachot and other religious content;
- Inspire campers to develop their Jewish identity;
- Be a Dugma (role model); and
- Have a ton of fun and make sure everyone around you is, too!

Qualifications

- A strong Jewish identity;
- Jewish programming background;
- Has worked with or is excited to work with children;
- Is comfortable in front of a crowd;
- Ability to lead groups through lessons and services;
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Jewish texts and figures;
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and an ability to work collaboratively with all levels of staff;
- Ability to multitask and work under pressure and deadlines;
- The desire to have the most rewarding summer of their lives; and
- A rabbinic ordination (or pursuing ordination) is a plus.

To Apply

This is a summer-only position at camp in Tumwater, Washington, from June 20th to August 14th. Competitive compensation. Room and board provided. CSS is a kosher facility. Travel costs are negotiable as well. Please submit your resume and cover letter to Josh Niehaus at jniehaus@campschechter.org. Only those whose applications are being considered will be contacted.

Camp Solomon Schechter is an equal opportunity employer and considers applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, gender, marital or veteran status, sexual orientation, age, political ideology, national or ethnic origin, disability, actual or perceived medical condition, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

